

Your child can cut out these plants and numbers, then lay them out in different combinations to create math problems.

Example of different ways to make 9: $8+1$, $7+2$, $6+3$ etc. Maybe start with a lower sum as a how-to lesson.

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

